

Middle School English

Textbooks: Writing and Grammar, Prentice Hall, 2005
Prentice Hall Literature, Prentice Hall, 2007
Vocabulary Workshop, Sadlier-Oxford, 2005

Grade Six: Students will master the fundamentals of grammar, composition, spelling and vocabulary. Students will experience the different genres of literature (prose, poetry, and drama) and recognize literary terms as they are used in literature. Students will build an appreciation for reading by reading various materials for pleasure.

Grade Seven: Students will continue to master grammar, composition, spelling and vocabulary. Students will experience the different genres of literature (prose, poetry, and drama) and recognize literary terms as they are used in literature. Students will continue to build reading skills as they read for pleasure.

Grade Eight: This course is designed to equip eighth graders for high school through students' mastery of grammar, composition, spelling, and vocabulary. Students will experience the different genres of literature (prose, poetry, and drama) and recognize literary terms as they are used in literature. Students will continue to build an appreciation for literature through reading for pleasure..

English Classes at SPCS are an Adventure in Literature and Writing

St. Petersburg Christian
School

Sixth Grade English

Take an adventure with learning basic grammar and writing skills. Take an enjoyable trip creating a poetry scrapbook and reading famous short stories and drama.

Dickinson

Seventh Grade English

Embark on an adventure with honing your grammar and writing skills. Walk down memory lane while you create your own autobiography. Explore the world of short stories and drama.

Eighth Grade English

Careen to the finish line with advanced grammar and writing. Do some research on your favorite author and write your first full research paper. Get ready to analyze complex literature using famous plays and short stories. Learn to present your communication in an effective manner.

